Louisiana Recipe for DKG Success: Teamwork, Leadership, and Communication

President's Message

Psi Sisters,

I am enjoying this cooler weather and hope you are, too. It was a little rainy on Saturday, September 22 when Mary Anne, Sheryl and I went to Natchitoches for the Central District Meeting. A Recipe For Success was true to its name that day. We had a good time and are looking forward to sharing with you at our next meeting on Tuesday, October 9.

Our literacy project this year is giving gently used books or new ones to Dr. Sukerek's office in Many and my cousin, Paige Sally, who works there has told me how much they will appreciate getting the books. They serve patients from birth to 21 years of age. So, please bring some to our meeting.

A few reminders:

- Mark your calendar for October 9 for our meeting
- Bring food for the food pantry at the COA
- Volunteer to be chair or co-chair of the theme basket this year- "Anything Goes"
- Buy or clean out shelves or closets for books to be given to Dr. Sukerek's office
- Pray for Ginger Jordan as she is beginning her breast cancer journey

See you at our meeting!
Diane Hatcher

Psi Birthdays

October

Anita Barnhill - 5
Frances Hayes - 16
Amanda Allen - 20

We send our love to Ginger Jordan and prayers as she undergoes treatments
for breast cancer.

Don't forget!

*Bring a nonperishable food item to our meetings.
These food items are added to the Council's food closet for those in need.*

DKG Cookbook

Each district is designated to submit a recipe from a certain food group. Complete one or more recipes from your designated food group ONLY. The committee is looking for original recipes from your kitchen. If you are submitting a recipe from a cookbook, please give credit in your recipe (at the bottom).

- Open the template and click enable editing.
- Use the dropdown box to add your respective district.
- Fill in recipe information - Use Times New Roman with 12 point font. This will ensure uniformity when recipes are submitted.
- Go to file and save as Your name and District
- You may need to save to Desktop and then email the document to mahebert11@gmail.com.

If you have any questions, submit them to my email address mahebert11@gmail.com. Deadline to submit a recipe is January 15, 2019. Let's get cooking!!
